

Samuel Avery Schoenwald

1233 4th St. N ■ Fargo, ND 58102 ■ 701-793-1984 ■ schoenwald343@gmail.com
Linkedin: www.linkedin.com/in/samuel-schoenwald

Disciplined, diligent, collaborative classical musician starting a career in software development. Educated in several programming languages and related technologies through online coursework and self-learning. Recently developed web applications with a React frontend and Node.js backend.

Technical Skills

Developed web applications using: Javascript, Typescript, React, Redux, HTML, CSS, Node.js, REST, GraphQL, MongoDB, Jest, Cypress
Also experienced with: Java, Python

Additional Skills

MS Office Suite, data entry programs, Zoom, GSuite, computer hardware

Education -- University Degrees

Master of Music, San Francisco Conservatory of Music, 2014 - 2016
Bachelor of Music, University of Minnesota, 2010 - 2014

Further Education

Full Stack Open, University of Helsinki online course, 2021
Algorithms parts I and II, Princeton University via Coursera, 2020
CS50x, Harvard OpenCourseWare, 2020
Java Programming II, University of Helsinki online course, 2020
Object-Oriented Programming with Java, part I, University of Helsinki online course, 2019

Work History

Freelance Violin Performer and Teacher, 2016-present

- Lincoln Center Stage Violinist, RWS Entertainment, 2019
 - Member of a piano quintet (string quartet and piano) aboard a Holland America cruise ship touring Asian countries
 - Performed 3 times per day, 6 days per week, for 4 months
 - Led group presentations for audiences about the music to be performed
- Violinist in a wide variety of American regional ensembles and national festival orchestras (National Repertory Orchestra, Atlantic Music Festival, Mendocino Music Festival, FM Symphony, FM Opera, Arkansas Symphony, Iowa Orchestra and more)
- Violin teacher at Upbeat Music, Chicago; Music City Academy, San Francisco; and in my private teaching studios

Library Supervisor, San Francisco Conservatory of Music, 2016 - 2017

- Supervised student workers and organized their schedules
- Processed new materials to be added to the library
- Worked with management software to add new materials to the library's database
- Assisted patrons of the library, including students, alumni, and staff
- Maintained, repaired, and organized the materials of the library

Student Archival Assistant, San Francisco Conservatory of Music, 2014 - 2016

- Digitized and edited recordings from the Conservatory's collection of faculty, student, and guest performances and lectures
- Wrote tutorials for a number of undocumented digitizing techniques for future student workers

Development Student Assistant, San Francisco Conservatory of Music, 2014-2015

- Wrote letters to donors and edited student-submitted promotional material

Temporary Seasonal Work:

- Sales Advisor, Best Buy, Fargo, 2020-2021
 - Part-time computer-sales position
- Night Printer, Scherling Photography, Fargo, 2018
 - Worked with, maintained, and troubleshoot printing software and hardware